Channel Zee Productions presents DEAD HOUSE, a paranormal documentary

Starring: Bill Murphy, Bill McHale, Guy Jackson, Dave Davey and Heather Woodward

Director, Writer, Producer: Heather Woodward

DVD Release Date: April 10, 2008

Run Time: 58 minutes + Bonus Short: Nurse Nancy 23 minutes

Join a group of paranormal researchers as they investigate a private residence in a small beach town. Only to discover that the house holds a sinister history of witchcraft and at least eight trapped souls bound by blood.

DEAD HOUSE was filmed in La Conchita, California over a four-month period in 2007. The documentary is a conglomeration of the "evidence" and history garnered from a series of investigation during that period.

The film was featured at the 2008 Dead of Winter Festival, hosted by Troy Taylor.

BONUS SHORT: Nurse Nancy - Investigation at former Camarillo State Hospital

Heather Woodward Bio

Heather Woodward is an author, a clairvoyant, an "accidental" medium, and a psychometrist. Since 1996, she has performed tarot readings, paranormal investigations and psychic profiling - helping others with her born-given gifts for over 12 years.

Heather is the author of The Ghosts of Central Arizona, a book about her personal experiences in some of the most haunted and supernatural locations in Sedona, Jerome, Cottonwood and surrounding areas.

Over the years, Heather has been interviewed as a guest on television, film, radio and print for her knowledge in the paranormal. She also teaches, lectures and provides workshops in tarot, psychic development, and spirit communication.
